Nonlinear Problems With Lower-Order Terms

Vincenzo Ferone

Università di Napoli "Federico II", Italia

e-mail: `ferone@unina.it`

We consider problems concerning classes of nonlinear equations which are characterized by the fact that they contain both a principal term in the form of a Leray-Lions operator defined on $W_0^{1,p}$ and a term which depends on the unknown function and on its gradient. Various existence and regularity questions are addressed and the possibility to get comparison results is investigated.